Never did the longest rain
Fail to end in sun again;
Mud has never yet been spied
That, some day did not get dried;

Gave a St. Patrick's Party.

St. Patrick's Day emblems and colors were cleverly used in the decorations in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Holman at an auction dinner party Wednesday night. Vases of green carnations and potted plants made the room attractive. A dinner of three courses was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Wm. Sparlock and Miss Dorothy Holman to Messrs. and Mesdames Barker, Barker, Crow, Coyle, Burford, Sparlock, Dale, John Dean, Miss Marie Dean, in the games which followed the dinner top scores were made by Mrs. W. H. Coyle and Mr. J. H. Burford who were presented St. Patrick favors.

St. Patrick's day name cards marked each place, and a delicious four course dinner was served. The guests formed a line party at the movies after dinner.

Party to School Teachers.

Quite the merriest of the St. Patrick's parties given Wednesday was the one of Supt. and Mrs. E. D. Brooks to the city school teachers. Shamrocks and green shaded lights decorated the room. After the Irish immigrants had made out their naturalization papers, the few that had been deported, proved to be qualified to enter this country by a successful potato race. An auction sale conducted by J. G. Wetmeyer provided each guest with a pig in a poke and the sale ended after the fashion of the old time Donnellybrook fair. Mr. C. F. McCormick sang two Irish airs, accompanied by Miss Grace Fernandes and Miss Byrnes gave an Irish jig. Dainty refreshment in green and white were served by Mrs. Brooks to Mrs. Lina

Herrick was assisted by Mrs. L. W. Rejahl in serving a three course dinner with a color scheme of green and white to Lyman Gray, John Coyle, Maurice O'Rourke, Fred Byrnes, Fred Beck, Vernon Curl, Parsons and L. W. Rejahl.

At the same time members of the senior and junior classes of the academy and college held a picnic in a different part of the park and later in the afternoon joined forces and attended the high school baseball games. Tomorrow (they will observe "clean-up day" at the university and while the young men clean up the campus, the young ladies will prepare a good old fashioned dinner which will be served at noon in the gymnasium.

What's Hot List!

Guthrie enjoys three distinctions. It possesses the only municipal bath house in the country; the best fire-proof hotel in the country, considering the size of the town; and the most beautiful woman in Oklahoma, which is just the same as saying in the whole country—Muskogee Phoenix.

Women for School Board.

Why not women for the school board? The women would take more interest in the school work than men do and moreover it would add tone to the board.

How to Handle the Cans.

The children seem to be in a quandary as to how they are going to get the tin cans to the Gem theater on "Clean-Up Day." Someone has suggested that they string the cans on wire. This will also use the old wire.
